

Marriage Oneness

Roles and Responsibilities

How can we be organized in our marriage?

1. Each person has a clear role.
2. Each person has a clear responsibility.

Three questions.

1. Can we as a couple say what our specific roles and responsibilities are? (common direction)
2. Do we agree that the distribution is fair? (emotional connection)
3. Are we both committed to fulfilling these responsibilities? (mutual commitment)

What does the Bible say?

1. Roles are complementary.

A. God's way is a masterful design.

B. The husband's role is leadership. (Ephesians 5:23)

1. Love and sacrifice (Ephesians 5:25)

2. Lead and protect spiritually (Ephesians 5:26-28)

3. He is to provide financially. I Timothy 5:8

C. The wife's role is a support role. Genesis 2:18

1. Love and support Titus 2:4

2. Energize her husband with respect. (Ephesians 5:33)

3. Make a good home that encourages him. Proverbs 31:27-28

2. What makes this work?

A. Both parties being yielded to Christ. John 15:4-5

B. Beyond roles the bible doesn't give us specifics about responsibilities.

3. Six suggestions

A. Make a list of responsibilities.

B. Discuss who enjoys and is best at each thing.

C. Make sure you feel it is balanced once completed.

D. Don't insist the other person does it your way.

E. Consider the season of life.

F. Be willing to help in their responsibilities if needed.

G. Express appreciation.

Marriage Oneness

Roles and Responsibilities

How can we be organized in our marriage?

1. Each person has a clear role.
2. Each person has a clear responsibility.

Three questions.

1. Can we as a couple say what our specific roles and responsibilities are? (common direction)
2. Do we agree that the distribution is fair? (emotional connection)
3. Are we both committed to fulfilling these responsibilities? (mutual commitment)

What does the Bible say?

1. Roles are complementary.

A. God's way is a masterful design.

B. The husband's role is leadership. (Ephesians 5:23)

1. Love and sacrifice (Ephesians 5:25)

2. Lead and protect spiritually (Ephesians 5:26-28)

3. He is to provide financially. I Timothy 5:8

C. The wife's role is a support role. Genesis 2:18

1. Love and support Titus 2:4

2. Energize her husband with respect. (Ephesians 5:33)

3. Make a good home that encourages him. Proverbs 31:27-28

2. What makes this work?

A. Both parties being yielded to Christ. John 15:4-5

B. Beyond roles the bible doesn't give us specifics about responsibilities.

3. Six suggestions

A. Make a list of responsibilities.

B. Discuss who enjoys and is best at each thing.

C. Make sure you feel it is balanced once completed.

D. Don't insist the other person does it your way.

E. Consider the season of life.

F. Be willing to help in their responsibilities if needed.

G. Express appreciation.

Marriage Oneness

Roles and Responsibilities

How can we be organized in our marriage?

1. Each person has a clear role.
2. Each person has a clear responsibility.

Three questions.

1. Can we as a couple say what our specific roles and responsibilities are? (common direction)
2. Do we agree that the distribution is fair? (emotional connection)
3. Are we both committed to fulfilling these responsibilities? (mutual commitment)

What does the Bible say?

1. Roles are complementary.

A. God's way is a masterful design.

B. The husband's role is leadership. (Ephesians 5:23)

1. Love and sacrifice (Ephesians 5:25)

2. Lead and protect spiritually (Ephesians 5:26-28)

3. He is to provide financially. I Timothy 5:8

C. The wife's role is a support role. Genesis 2:18

1. Love and support Titus 2:4

2. Energize her husband with respect. (Ephesians 5:33)

3. Make a good home that encourages him. Proverbs 31:27-28

2. What makes this work?

A. Both parties being yielded to Christ. John 15:4-5

B. Beyond roles the bible doesn't give us specifics about responsibilities.

3. Six suggestions

A. Make a list of responsibilities.

B. Discuss who enjoys and is best at each thing.

C. Make sure you feel it is balanced once completed.

D. Don't insist the other person does it your way.

E. Consider the season of life.

F. Be willing to help in their responsibilities if needed.

G. Express appreciation.

Marriage Oneness

Roles and Responsibilities

How can we be organized in our marriage?

1. Each person has a clear role.
2. Each person has a clear responsibility.

Three questions.

1. Can we as a couple say what our specific roles and responsibilities are? (common direction)
2. Do we agree that the distribution is fair? (emotional connection)
3. Are we both committed to fulfilling these responsibilities? (mutual commitment)

What does the Bible say?

1. Roles are complementary.

A. God's way is a masterful design.

B. The husband's role is leadership. (Ephesians 5:23)

1. Love and sacrifice (Ephesians 5:25)

2. Lead and protect spiritually (Ephesians 5:26-28)

3. He is to provide financially. I Timothy 5:8

C. The wife's role is a support role. Genesis 2:18

1. Love and support Titus 2:4

2. Energize her husband with respect. (Ephesians 5:33)

3. Make a good home that encourages him. Proverbs 31:27-28

2. What makes this work?

A. Both parties being yielded to Christ. John 15:4-5

B. Beyond roles the bible doesn't give us specifics about responsibilities.

3. Six suggestions

A. Make a list of responsibilities.

B. Discuss who enjoys and is best at each thing.

C. Make sure you feel it is balanced once completed.

D. Don't insist the other person does it your way.

E. Consider the season of life.

F. Be willing to help in their responsibilities if needed.

G. Express appreciation.

Marriage Oneness

Roles and Responsibilities

How can we be organized in our marriage?

1. Each person has a clear role.
2. Each person has a clear responsibility.

Three questions.

1. Can we as a couple say what our specific roles and responsibilities are? (common direction)
2. Do we agree that the distribution is fair? (emotional connection)
3. Are we both committed to fulfilling these responsibilities? (mutual commitment)

What does the Bible say?

1. Roles are complementary.

A. God's way is a masterful design.

B. The husband's role is leadership. (Ephesians 5:23)

1. Love and sacrifice (Ephesians 5:25)

2. Lead and protect spiritually (Ephesians 5:26-28)

3. He is to provide financially. I Timothy 5:8

C. The wife's role is a support role. Genesis 2:18

1. Love and support Titus 2:4

2. Energize her husband with respect. (Ephesians 5:33)

3. Make a good home that encourages him. Proverbs 31:27-28

2. What makes this work?

A. Both parties being yielded to Christ. John 15:4-5

B. Beyond roles the bible doesn't give us specifics about responsibilities.

3. Six suggestions

A. Make a list of responsibilities.

B. Discuss who enjoys and is best at each thing.

C. Make sure you feel it is balanced once completed.

D. Don't insist the other person does it your way.

E. Consider the season of life.

F. Be willing to help in their responsibilities if needed.

G. Express appreciation.

Marriage Oneness

Roles and Responsibilities

How can we be organized in our marriage?

1. Each person has a clear role.
2. Each person has a clear responsibility.

Three questions.

1. Can we as a couple say what our specific roles and responsibilities are? (common direction)
2. Do we agree that the distribution is fair? (emotional connection)
3. Are we both committed to fulfilling these responsibilities? (mutual commitment)

What does the Bible say?

1. Roles are complementary.

A. God's way is a masterful design.

B. The husband's role is leadership. (Ephesians 5:23)

1. Love and sacrifice (Ephesians 5:25)

2. Lead and protect spiritually (Ephesians 5:26-28)

3. He is to provide financially. I Timothy 5:8

C. The wife's role is a support role. Genesis 2:18

1. Love and support Titus 2:4

2. Energize her husband with respect. (Ephesians 5:33)

3. Make a good home that encourages him. Proverbs 31:27-28

2. What makes this work?

A. Both parties being yielded to Christ. John 15:4-5

B. Beyond roles the bible doesn't give us specifics about responsibilities.

3. Six suggestions

A. Make a list of responsibilities.

B. Discuss who enjoys and is best at each thing.

C. Make sure you feel it is balanced once completed.

D. Don't insist the other person does it your way.

E. Consider the season of life.

F. Be willing to help in their responsibilities if needed.

G. Express appreciation.

Marriage Oneness

Roles and Responsibilities

How can we be organized in our marriage?

1. Each person has a clear role.
2. Each person has a clear responsibility.

Three questions.

1. Can we as a couple say what our specific roles and responsibilities are? (common direction)
2. Do we agree that the distribution is fair? (emotional connection)
3. Are we both committed to fulfilling these responsibilities? (mutual commitment)

What does the Bible say?

1. Roles are complementary.

A. God's way is a masterful design.

B. The husband's role is leadership. (Ephesians 5:23)

1. Love and sacrifice (Ephesians 5:25)

2. Lead and protect spiritually (Ephesians 5:26-28)

3. He is to provide financially. I Timothy 5:8

C. The wife's role is a support role. Genesis 2:18

1. Love and support Titus 2:4

2. Energize her husband with respect. (Ephesians 5:33)

3. Make a good home that encourages him. Proverbs 31:27-28

2. What makes this work?

A. Both parties being yielded to Christ. John 15:4-5

B. Beyond roles the bible doesn't give us specifics about responsibilities.

3. Six suggestions

A. Make a list of responsibilities.

B. Discuss who enjoys and is best at each thing.

C. Make sure you feel it is balanced once completed.

D. Don't insist the other person does it your way.

E. Consider the season of life.

F. Be willing to help in their responsibilities if needed.

G. Express appreciation.

Marriage Oneness

Roles and Responsibilities

How can we be organized in our marriage?

1. Each person has a clear role.
2. Each person has a clear responsibility.

Three questions.

1. Can we as a couple say what our specific roles and responsibilities are? (common direction)
2. Do we agree that the distribution is fair? (emotional connection)
3. Are we both committed to fulfilling these responsibilities? (mutual commitment)

What does the Bible say?

1. Roles are complementary.

A. God's way is a masterful design.

B. The husband's role is leadership. (Ephesians 5:23)

1. Love and sacrifice (Ephesians 5:25)

2. Lead and protect spiritually (Ephesians 5:26-28)

3. He is to provide financially. I Timothy 5:8

C. The wife's role is a support role. Genesis 2:18

1. Love and support Titus 2:4

2. Energize her husband with respect. (Ephesians 5:33)

3. Make a good home that encourages him. Proverbs 31:27-28

2. What makes this work?

A. Both parties being yielded to Christ. John 15:4-5

B. Beyond roles the bible doesn't give us specifics about responsibilities.

3. Six suggestions

A. Make a list of responsibilities.

B. Discuss who enjoys and is best at each thing.

C. Make sure you feel it is balanced once completed.

D. Don't insist the other person does it your way.

E. Consider the season of life.

F. Be willing to help in their responsibilities if needed.

G. Express appreciation.

Marriage Oneness

Roles and Responsibilities

How can we be organized in our marriage?

1. Each person has a clear role.
2. Each person has a clear responsibility.

Three questions.

1. Can we as a couple say what our specific roles and responsibilities are? (common direction)
2. Do we agree that the distribution is fair? (emotional connection)
3. Are we both committed to fulfilling these responsibilities? (mutual commitment)

What does the Bible say?

1. Roles are complementary.

A. God's way is a masterful design.

B. The husband's role is leadership. (Ephesians 5:23)

1. Love and sacrifice (Ephesians 5:25)

2. Lead and protect spiritually (Ephesians 5:26-28)

3. He is to provide financially. I Timothy 5:8

C. The wife's role is a support role. Genesis 2:18

1. Love and support Titus 2:4

2. Energize her husband with respect. (Ephesians 5:33)

3. Make a good home that encourages him. Proverbs 31:27-28

2. What makes this work?

A. Both parties being yielded to Christ. John 15:4-5

B. Beyond roles the bible doesn't give us specifics about responsibilities.

3. Six suggestions

A. Make a list of responsibilities.

B. Discuss who enjoys and is best at each thing.

C. Make sure you feel it is balanced once completed.

D. Don't insist the other person does it your way.

E. Consider the season of life.

F. Be willing to help in their responsibilities if needed.

G. Express appreciation.

Marriage Oneness

Roles and Responsibilities

How can we be organized in our marriage?

1. Each person has a clear role.
2. Each person has a clear responsibility.

Three questions.

1. Can we as a couple say what our specific roles and responsibilities are? (common direction)
2. Do we agree that the distribution is fair? (emotional connection)
3. Are we both committed to fulfilling these responsibilities? (mutual commitment)

What does the Bible say?

1. Roles are complementary.

A. God's way is a masterful design.

B. The husband's role is leadership. (Ephesians 5:23)

1. Love and sacrifice (Ephesians 5:25)

2. Lead and protect spiritually (Ephesians 5:26-28)

3. He is to provide financially. I Timothy 5:8

C. The wife's role is a support role. Genesis 2:18

1. Love and support Titus 2:4

2. Energize her husband with respect. (Ephesians 5:33)

3. Make a good home that encourages him. Proverbs 31:27-28

2. What makes this work?

A. Both parties being yielded to Christ. John 15:4-5

B. Beyond roles the bible doesn't give us specifics about responsibilities.

3. Six suggestions

A. Make a list of responsibilities.

B. Discuss who enjoys and is best at each thing.

C. Make sure you feel it is balanced once completed.

D. Don't insist the other person does it your way.

E. Consider the season of life.

F. Be willing to help in their responsibilities if needed.

G. Express appreciation.

Marriage Oneness

Roles and Responsibilities

How can we be organized in our marriage?

1. Each person has a clear role.
2. Each person has a clear responsibility.

Three questions.

1. Can we as a couple say what our specific roles and responsibilities are? (common direction)
2. Do we agree that the distribution is fair? (emotional connection)
3. Are we both committed to fulfilling these responsibilities? (mutual commitment)

What does the Bible say?

1. Roles are complementary.

A. God's way is a masterful design.

B. The husband's role is leadership. (Ephesians 5:23)

1. Love and sacrifice (Ephesians 5:25)

2. Lead and protect spiritually (Ephesians 5:26-28)

3. He is to provide financially. I Timothy 5:8

C. The wife's role is a support role. Genesis 2:18

1. Love and support Titus 2:4

2. Energize her husband with respect. (Ephesians 5:33)

3. Make a good home that encourages him. Proverbs 31:27-28

2. What makes this work?

A. Both parties being yielded to Christ. John 15:4-5

B. Beyond roles the bible doesn't give us specifics about responsibilities.

3. Six suggestions

A. Make a list of responsibilities.

B. Discuss who enjoys and is best at each thing.

C. Make sure you feel it is balanced once completed.

D. Don't insist the other person does it your way.

E. Consider the season of life.

F. Be willing to help in their responsibilities if needed.

G. Express appreciation.

Marriage Oneness

Roles and Responsibilities

How can we be organized in our marriage?

1. Each person has a clear role.
2. Each person has a clear responsibility.

Three questions.

1. Can we as a couple say what our specific roles and responsibilities are? (common direction)
2. Do we agree that the distribution is fair? (emotional connection)
3. Are we both committed to fulfilling these responsibilities? (mutual commitment)

What does the Bible say?

1. Roles are complementary.

A. God's way is a masterful design.

B. The husband's role is leadership. (Ephesians 5:23)

1. Love and sacrifice (Ephesians 5:25)

2. Lead and protect spiritually (Ephesians 5:26-28)

3. He is to provide financially. I Timothy 5:8

C. The wife's role is a support role. Genesis 2:18

1. Love and support Titus 2:4

2. Energize her husband with respect. (Ephesians 5:33)

3. Make a good home that encourages him. Proverbs 31:27-28

2. What makes this work?

A. Both parties being yielded to Christ. John 15:4-5

B. Beyond roles the bible doesn't give us specifics about responsibilities.

3. Six suggestions

A. Make a list of responsibilities.

B. Discuss who enjoys and is best at each thing.

C. Make sure you feel it is balanced once completed.

D. Don't insist the other person does it your way.

E. Consider the season of life.

F. Be willing to help in their responsibilities if needed.

G. Express appreciation.

Marriage Oneness

Roles and Responsibilities

How can we be organized in our marriage?

1. Each person has a clear role.
2. Each person has a clear responsibility.

Three questions.

1. Can we as a couple say what our specific roles and responsibilities are? (common direction)
2. Do we agree that the distribution is fair? (emotional connection)
3. Are we both committed to fulfilling these responsibilities? (mutual commitment)

What does the Bible say?

1. Roles are complementary.

A. God's way is a masterful design.

B. The husband's role is leadership. (Ephesians 5:23)

1. Love and sacrifice (Ephesians 5:25)

2. Lead and protect spiritually (Ephesians 5:26-28)

3. He is to provide financially. I Timothy 5:8

C. The wife's role is a support role. Genesis 2:18

1. Love and support Titus 2:4

2. Energize her husband with respect. (Ephesians 5:33)

3. Make a good home that encourages him. Proverbs 31:27-28

2. What makes this work?

A. Both parties being yielded to Christ. John 15:4-5

B. Beyond roles the bible doesn't give us specifics about responsibilities.

3. Six suggestions

A. Make a list of responsibilities.

B. Discuss who enjoys and is best at each thing.

C. Make sure you feel it is balanced once completed.

D. Don't insist the other person does it your way.

E. Consider the season of life.

F. Be willing to help in their responsibilities if needed.

G. Express appreciation.

Marriage Oneness

Roles and Responsibilities

How can we be organized in our marriage?

1. Each person has a clear role.
2. Each person has a clear responsibility.

Three questions.

1. Can we as a couple say what our specific roles and responsibilities are? (common direction)
2. Do we agree that the distribution is fair? (emotional connection)
3. Are we both committed to fulfilling these responsibilities? (mutual commitment)

What does the Bible say?

1. Roles are complementary.

A. God's way is a masterful design.

B. The husband's role is leadership. (Ephesians 5:23)

1. Love and sacrifice (Ephesians 5:25)

2. Lead and protect spiritually (Ephesians 5:26-28)

3. He is to provide financially. I Timothy 5:8

C. The wife's role is a support role. Genesis 2:18

1. Love and support Titus 2:4

2. Energize her husband with respect. (Ephesians 5:33)

3. Make a good home that encourages him. Proverbs 31:27-28

2. What makes this work?

A. Both parties being yielded to Christ. John 15:4-5

B. Beyond roles the bible doesn't give us specifics about responsibilities.

3. Six suggestions

A. Make a list of responsibilities.

B. Discuss who enjoys and is best at each thing.

C. Make sure you feel it is balanced once completed.

D. Don't insist the other person does it your way.

E. Consider the season of life.

F. Be willing to help in their responsibilities if needed.

G. Express appreciation.

Marriage Oneness

Roles and Responsibilities

How can we be organized in our marriage?

1. Each person has a clear role.
2. Each person has a clear responsibility.

Three questions.

1. Can we as a couple say what our specific roles and responsibilities are? (common direction)
2. Do we agree that the distribution is fair? (emotional connection)
3. Are we both committed to fulfilling these responsibilities? (mutual commitment)

What does the Bible say?

1. Roles are complementary.

A. God's way is a masterful design.

B. The husband's role is leadership. (Ephesians 5:23)

1. Love and sacrifice (Ephesians 5:25)

2. Lead and protect spiritually (Ephesians 5:26-28)

3. He is to provide financially. I Timothy 5:8

C. The wife's role is a support role. Genesis 2:18

1. Love and support Titus 2:4

2. Energize her husband with respect. (Ephesians 5:33)

3. Make a good home that encourages him. Proverbs 31:27-28

2. What makes this work?

A. Both parties being yielded to Christ. John 15:4-5

B. Beyond roles the bible doesn't give us specifics about responsibilities.

3. Six suggestions

A. Make a list of responsibilities.

B. Discuss who enjoys and is best at each thing.

C. Make sure you feel it is balanced once completed.

D. Don't insist the other person does it your way.

E. Consider the season of life.

F. Be willing to help in their responsibilities if needed.

G. Express appreciation.